A HOME FOR INCURABLES.

WILL BE LOCATED IN THE TOWN OF WETHERSFIELD.

The "Dr. Cook Place" has been secured—A Grand Work—Dr. Francis Bacon Warmly Commends it to Public Sympathy and support.

As was stated in the "Courier" a few days ago another new and noble charitable institution is to be founded in Connecticut. It will be open to any child of the incurable class in the state. The Hartford Post gives the following details:

By the generosity of Mrs. J. G. Parsons of Hartford, well known in connection with other public good works, the home for incurable children, which has been long talked of, is now about to be established.

Mrs. Parsons has purchased the property in Wethersfield, known as the "Dr. Cook place," a well built stone and stucco house, with southern ex-posure, of eleven rooms, on the line of the electric cars, and surrounded with five or six acres of land, which will provide room for the building of detached cottages as the work increases.

The fund collected by Mrs. Virginia T. Smith will be used for fitting and furnishing the house, and for any additions or repairs which may be necessary for putting the place in thorough order. Plans may be added, and an attractive house will be opened as soon as possible.

BRANCH OF THE AID SOCIETY.
The place will be under the care of a branch of the Connecticut Children's Aid society, which will secure a competent matron and assistants, and will constantly supervise and direct the management. The children will be under medical observation, and in case of need can be transferred to a hospital.

It is well known to physicians who have under their care in hospitals this most unfortunate class of dependent children that there is no proper provision in the state for them when they are discharged as incurable from hospital wards. Often they are in need of daily care and gentle handling which they are not likely to receive in almshouses or the crowded homes of the poor.

Often they can stand alone only as they are swathed in bandages, or laced up in jackets or other appliances, which need to be frequently adjusted and changed, a matter not understood in the homes to which these children are returned from the hospitals. No institution receives them, they are excluded as "chronic incurables" from county homes and rightly so.

THIS WILL BE A SHELTER This home, now about to open, will shelter these little people whose quiet helplessness appeals strongly to the charity of the public. A number of them are now known personally to the Children's Aid society, and will be removed to the home as soon as it can be put in readiness. Others have been brought to the attention of the society, which opens the home to children from any part of the state.

This work cannot fail to interest all who are familiar with the needs of the sick poor, and Francis Bacon, M.
D., chairman of the committee on home for incurables, cordially commends it to the medical profession, and to public sympathy and support.

lecture begins at 8 o'clock. Mr. Heischmann is a very forcible and entertaining speaker.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Financial Notes—The Clearing House—Dividends.

The New Haven Clearing house reports the clearings and balances for the week ending January 12 of this and last year. The amounts vary but little, but the clearings of the week of this year are $104,121 less than for the corresponding week of 1893. By days the amounts of both clearings and balances were:

	1895.	1894.

Jan. 8.	253,670.36	49,552.28

The books of the Chicago Junction R.
R. & Union stock yards closed on Saturday for the usual dividends of 4 per cent on the common and 3 per cent on the preferred stock, payable—Jan. 25.

The Hanover Fire Insurance company is paying on demand a semi-annual dividend of 3 1/2 per cent, reduction of 1 1/2 per cent from the last dividend in July of 5 per cent.

To-day the following dividends will be payable:

Name	Rate.
American Bell Telephone, guar.	3
American Bell Telephone, extra.	1 1/2
Boston Electric Light, guar.	2
Equitable Gas Light, N. Y. City, guar.	3
Fitchburg R. R. pfd.	2
John B. Stetson & Co., com. and pref.	4
New Haven Electric Light, guar.	2

Swift & Co. stock has dropped since the passage of dividend from 100 to 80; at the latter figure the stock should be a good speculative purchase, as dividends will be resumed with improved business conditions and the lower price discounts dividends for about three years.

COURT RECORD.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Cable.
Samuel Davis, drunk and breach of the peace, continued until January 25; John M. Moran, breach of the peace, $7 fine, $7.00 costs; Charles Walsh, breach 19; Thomas J. Donnelly, begging, continued until January 19; John M. Mitchell, variance, 30 days in jail, $5.00 fine, $5.42 costs; Joseph Dash, obstructing sidewalk, nolle; James O'Hara, reform school complaint, nolle; William Millburn, theft, $7 fine, 30 days in jail, $16.24 costs; John Smith, embezzlement, 30 days in jail, $7.00 costs.

Court Notes.
In the superior court yesterday Judge Wheeler granted a divorce to Katie J.
Mend on the grounds of adultery.

There will be four courts in session in this city. The courts are the supreme court of errors, superior court, criminal and civil side, and the common pleas court, civil side. A jury will be called in the latter court.

THE CHESHIRE BRASS COMPANY CASE.
Yesterday there was a hearing before Edmund Zacher, esq., appointed by the superior court as commissioner in F. A. Ives of Cheshire vs. Cheshire Brass company. F. A. Ives had been appointed receiver of the Cheshire Brass company in the case above named, which was an amicable suit brought by the stockholders of the company, asking that Mr. Ives be appointed receiver, as the company wished to wind up its business. The company was entirely solvent, but was not doing a paying business. Mr.
Zacher was appointed to pass upon the claims against the company. Yesterday the hearing was upon the claim of G. Nelson Platt, who claims $1,000 damages for being discharged from the company of brass, superior court, the time ceased to do business in May, 1893, as his contract with the company did not expire until March, 1894. The defense was that the Cheshire Brass company, through Mr. F. A. Ives, its secretary, obtained a situation for Mr. Platt with Randolph & Clows of Waterbury for the same pay for a year. For claimant Goodhart and W. B. Stoddard, for the Cheshire Brass company, Arvine and Russell.

A. O. U. W.
Institution of Commonwealth Lodge
No. 69.

Commonwealth lodge, No. 69, A. O.
U. W., will be instituted at Odd Fellows' hall, New Haven, this evening, at 8 o'clock. The opening, closing and institution ceremonies will be fully exemplified and the officers of the lodge (which must be elected immediately after the institution of the lodge), will be installed in accordance with the usages of the order.

An orchestra, under the direction of John Currier of this lodge, will furnish music, assisted by a quartet composed of members of East Rock and Pyramid lodges.

SELECT READINGS
By Dr. Thos. E. L. Thorpe, pastor of the First M. E. church of Hartford, will give select readings, heroic, dramatic and humorous, at the St. Andrews M.
E. church, on Wednesday evening, under the auspices and for the benefit of the Epworth league. The fact that Dr. Thorpe read in this church several years ago, together with the reasonable price of admission, has already secured the assurance that a large audience will greet the doctor at his second appearance.

AGED PEOPLE.
Oldest in the State.
The oldest person in the state is Betty Saunders of South Norwalk. She will celebrate her 105th birthday in March and is as lively as most women many years her junior.

FAIR HAVEN.

The last of a series of entertainments by the Young Ladies' Mission circle of the Grand avenue Congregational church, will be held to-morrow evening at the home of Mrs. Dr. Boyer, corner of Grand avenue and Atwater street.
There will be readings, and Mrs. W. W.
Kelsey will give an account of her recent trip to Europe.

Mrs. Eliza, widow of Leonard Chamberlain, died at the New Haven hospital, where she had been receiving treatment for some six or eight weeks, Sunday evening at the age of sixty years.
Since the death of her husband, she had made her home with her brother-in-law, A. L. Chamberlain, East Grand avenue. The funeral will be held from the hospital chapel this afternoon, and the interment will be in Fair Haven cemetery.

Mrs. Rebecca S., wife of Charles S.
Graves of 283 Grand avenue, died at the New Haven hospital on Sunday, where she had been for treatment.
The deceased was forty-two years of age.

Cars 62 and 66 of the New Haven Street railway, which were in collision near Lake Whitney, have been repaired at the shops on Ferry street and will soon be running again. They have been put in first class condition.

The Brownies' entertainment, which was given twice during Christmas week by the young people of the Grand avenue Congregational church, will be repeated on Thursday evening in the Sunday school room. There are to be three additional features.

Miss Edna Pack of Westport, N. S., came here last week to receive instruction in music. She is boarding with Mrs. J. E. Gridley of Houston street.
F. H. Hemingway, who has been very ill from the effects of an abscess on the arm, is now able to sit up a little.

William Konold's two new one family houses on Park street, near Clinton, will be completed next month.
They were built by Thorpe, the contractor. These make ten houses built by Mr. Konold.

Willie R. Huntley of Pierpont street, who has been confined to his home since November 7 with a broken leg, was able to get out Sunday for the first time since the accident. Dr. E. C.
M. Hall, who attended him, found a bad fracture, but succeeded in reducing it, and he was doing well until a week later, when he had the misfortune to again break the bone, necessitating another setting, which was successfully accomplished by Dr. Hall. Since that time he has been slowly gaining, and will probably entirely recover from the accident. Many of his young friends have visited him while confined to the house, and have done much to alleviate his sufferings.

At the power house of the New Haven Street railway another tall smoke stack was raised Saturday, making three in all. It will afford draft for two more boilers. When this additional steam producing power is in place the plant will be able to furnish all the power required for the different lines.

The oyster dredge samplers went out early yesterday morning, but the gale of Sunday night kicked up such a heavy sea that they could not work, and the fleet soon returned.

The local duck hunters at their leisure carve out decoys to use in hunting later in the season. There is prospect that many ducks will be taken this season.

There was a large amount of floating ice moving up and down the Quinnipiac river yesterday, and many persons watched the cakes as they crashed against the bridge abutments.
H. Konold & Son expect about 2,500 tons of coal to arrive in barges at their dock just above Quinnipiac drawbridge this week. They report that the ice in the river is not heavy enough as yet to interfere with bringing loaded boats to the dock.

At a whist party given by Miss Agnes Daly at her home, 115 South Quinnipiac street, those who attended included Misses Conroy, Doyle, Higgins, Bird, Ryan and Messrs. Regan, Ryan, Bird, Bradley, Grannis, Sparks and Schofield.

The funeral of the late Henry R.
Goodale took place at Hartford yesterday, and the remains were brought here in the afternoon and interred in the Fair Haven cemetery, where Rev.
J. Lee Mitchell officiated.

Engagement Announced.
The engagement is announced of Miss Marion F. Kern of this city to Mr. William Selgel of Waterbury. They will be at home, No. 33 Lyon street, Sunday, January 27.

F. L. Ross, one of the Harvard debaters chosen to meet Yale, is ill with appendicitis. In case he is unable to appear, F. W. Dobyn of the freshman class will take his place.

A MIDNIGHT VISITOR.
Every Mother Should Be Prepared to Battle with Croup—The Best Remedy.
(From the Providence, R. I., Telegram.) What word carries more terror to a mother than croup, that insidious visitor who steals upon her children at night when their stores are closed and physicians not within reach. Croup does its deadly work quick, and if not met at the outset with stringent methods is almost sure to prove a conqueror. Every mother should keep a remedy which can reach it at the first ominous bark. It has been truly said that a bottle of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer on the medicine shelf insures greater safety from such ills than would a doctor in your house.
Teeth filled with silver, 75c.
Teeth filled with Gold, $1.00 and up.
Teeth extracted, 25c.

Tedious Suffering Finds Relief.

HAVENHILL, N. H.—Many physicians have pronounced, as incurable, diseases of the skin and blood. Mrs. Hodson of this place abandoned the old school method and used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and was cured.

In October, 1890, and for a year after, Mrs.
Hodson suffered from a diseased ankle bone.
She had always been troubled with salt rheum, which aggravated the diseased limb.
Prescriptions and medicines of all sorts were used, but with no benefit. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was tried, and it drove the poison out of her blood, healed the ulcerous sores, and restored Mrs. Hodson to health and strength.

Favorite Remedy cleanses the blood, and strengthens the nerves. In cases of scrofula and salt rheum, it cures where all else fails.
